

Limmud returns to the Tyne...

Welcome to Limmud

Limmud offers a unique blend of formal and informal education, drawing on resources from all sections of the community.

Limmud is a charitable organisation without a denominational or political agenda, which believes in the inherent value of Jewish education.

The North-East's third exciting and stimulating one-day learning event has been planned in Limmud's unique style for Sunday 28 October 2007. You will have the opportunity to experience a whole range of text based, cultural, artistic and philosophical sessions.

What is included?

- A full day of lectures and workshops
- Programmes for children and young people
- Kosher lunch and all-day refreshments

Venue and Times

The Royal Grammar School is on Eskdale Terrace, Jesmond. It is easy to reach – directions will be supplied in your registration pack. We will be able to accommodate a maximum of 225 people, available on a first come, first served basis. The day will start at 10am and finish around 5pm.

We are also planning an evening of Jewish music and entertainment for the previous evening, Saturday 27 October. Details and ticket prices will be included in your registration pack.

Cost and Booking

Whole day, including lunch:

- Adults £30
- Under 16s £20
- Concessions (NUS, low income, retired) £20
- Family ticket (2 adults and up to 4 children) £80

Limmud's policy is that nobody should be barred from attending any event for financial reasons. If you are unable to pay the full ticket price, please contact us in confidence.