

Limmud returns to Scotland

Welcome to Limmud

Limmud offers a unique blend of formal and informal education, drawing on resources from all sections of the local and UK Jewish communities, as well as from abroad, showcasing top-class presenters.

Limmud is a charitable organisation, without a Jewish denominational or political agenda, which believes in the inherent value of Jewish education.

Limmud Scotland's fifth exciting and stimulating one-day learning event is planned for Sunday 14th February 2010. You will have the opportunity to experience a wide range of sessions including lectures, workshops, performances, panel discussions and text study, all on topics of Jewish interest.

What is included?

- A full day with a broad choice of subjects to explore
- A Kosher lunch, suitable for vegetarians, and all day refreshments
- A crèche for babies and toddlers
- Family sessions for children accompanied by parents or guardians
- A warm Scottish welcome, whatever the weather!

Venue and time

Hutchesons' Grammar School is easy to reach by public transport. Ample free parking is available. We are offering transport from Edinburgh. Full travel directions will be supplied with your registration pack. There is good access for the disabled.

Registration is at 09:00, with the first session starting at 10:00. The day will finish at around 18:00.
